

January 2016

DEL E. WEBB CENTER
FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

FIND YOUR CENTER

Volunteer Newsletter

“I believe we are put on this earth to be of service. It’s how I find meaning in my life. And it’s fun!”
~ Dana Delany

January Birthdays

Joan Rice Jan 9

Karen Bryant Jan 16

Kaye Hobrock Jan 18

Sue Eselgroth Jan 20

The Webb Center wishes you a very Happy Birthday!

This month we are getting excited about:

1/21 – National Geographic Live! Limited Seating! Filmmaker Bob Poole will share unforgettable images from Mozambique’s Gongorosa National Park.

1/23 & 1/24 – Under the Streetlamp Limited Seating! We have been anxiously awaiting their return and we have them for TWO days of ‘50s & ‘60s hits!

1/27 – Pink Martini Very Limited Seating! This “little orchestra” is exceptional. After years of trying to get them here, they’re making their Webb Center debut!

Congratulations to the December Volunteer of the Month:

Reggie Deburiatte

Reggie was nominated for his support and help with the new house managers and the new and old volunteers.

Thank you Reggie!

Did you catch a volunteer going above and beyond? Nominate them for volunteer of the month!

Shirley Pettingell received a wonderful Christmas serenade at The Ten Tenors!

A Note From the House Managers:

Steve: We want to thank all our volunteers for the wonderful job they have done so far and are looking forward to a fantastic new year.

Mary: Remember to check email often. When sending out an assignment, I wait to receive all confirmations before sending the next out to avoid confusion. I appreciate the speed with which you respond to me.