

The Webb Center's 11th Annual "Guys Who Grill"

A fun-filled community-wide grilling competition that raises funds in support of the Webb Center's "Arts for Kids Programs," including a summer arts camp, Camp Imagination.

When: Saturday, March 18, 2023 • 11:30 am - 2:00 pm

Where: Wickenburg Community Center, 160 N Valentine Street

Cost to the Public: $20 Tickets, $40 VIP, Includes Live Music

Enter a Team:

- Registration is free.
- The Webb Center will reimburse teams for food costs, with receipts, for up to $350/team.
- Teams must supply all equipment, grills, grilling utensils, tables, awning coverings, etc. The Webb Center will provide all other supplies.
- Teams supply all food to be sampled and judged. We expect upwards of 800 people in attendance. A sample portion is decided by each team (i.e. 1 oz of meat, 1 chicken wing, etc).
- Teams may get sponsors to pay for their expenses.
- Teams are encouraged to wear costumes and decorate their grill areas related to a theme.
- Prizes are awarded for best cooking categories; for example brisket, pulled pork, chicken, etc. In addition, there will be the highly coveted People's Choice Award.
- Beer, soda and water will be sold by an official vendor. Teams can not bring their own alcoholic beverages.
- The event will supply paper plates, forks and napkins.

Be a Sponsor:

In recognition, your name/company will be included in advertising, event signage and be listed as an "Arts for Kids" contributor in the Camp Imagination program. Event & band sponsors will receive 4 complimentary tickets to a "Webb Center Presents" event during the 2020-21 season.

- Event Sponsor - Sponsor the event with tax deductible donations of $500—$1,000.
- Team Sponsor - Sponsor a grilling team by offsetting their food expenses. Teams generally spend $500 on food and related items for the event.
